SAINT KURIAKOSE ELIAS CHAVARA

(1805 - 1871)

Kuriakose Chavara was born on 10th February 1805 of pious and devout Catholic parents in Kainakary, Kerala, India. After his early schooling in the native village and priestly studies under Fr. Thomas Palackal at Pallippuram he was ordained priest in 1829.

Co-operating with Frs Thomas Palackal and Thomas Porukara, he founded the indigenous religious congregation for men (1831), now known as the Carmelites of Mary Immaculate (CMI).

It was after the death of the co-founder that Fr. Kuriakose made the religious profession together with the first members in 1855. In the religious congregation he took the house at Mannanam, he started seven religious houses in different parts of Kerala. In 1866 with the co-operation of Fr. Leopold Beccaro he started Congregation of Mother of Carmel (CMC) for women.

"Love one another as I have loved you." — Jesus Christ

Chavara worked for the uplift of the poor and downtrodden. He started many educational and social institutions for the benefit of the common people. It was his idea to start schools attached to every church in Kerala, which resulted in the high literacy rate of the state. He revolutionized the society by opening up the schools for the deprived and under privileged people in the caste-ridden society of his time.

Amidst his diverse and manifold activities he found time to write a few books both prose and verse. His counsels to the Christian Families given in the form of "Testaments of a Loving Father" are universally applicable and are relevant to this day. Essentially a man of prayer and intense charity, he stayed in close communion with God amidst his severe religious life and so much so that he was accepted and referred to as a man of God from his early years. He lived his motto 'The Lord is my Portion' throughout his life.

Fr. Chavara died on 3rd January 1871 at Koonanmmavu preserving his baptismal innocence. His mortal remains were later transferred from Koonanmmavu to St. Joseph's Monastery at Mannanam in 1889. Pope John Paul II solemnly declared the heroic virtues of Chavara on April 7th 1984, thus elevating him to the status of venerable. On February 8th, 1986 during his historic visit to Kerala, the Pope raised Kuriakose Elias Chavara to the honors of the Altar declaring him 'Blessed'. On November 23rd 2014 he was declared Saint Chavara by Pope Francis.

Message of St Chavara to Students

SHOWERS OF BLESSING

There shall be showers of blessing
This is the promise of love
There shall be seasons refreshing
Sent from the Saviour above
Showers of blessing,
Showers of blessing we need
Mercy drops round us are falling
But for the showers we plead
There shall showers of blessing
Send them upon us O Lord
Grant to us now a refreshing
Come now and honour Thy word.
There shall be showers of blessing,
Oh that today, they might fall,
Now as to God we are confessing
Now as on Father we call …

GUIDING LIGHT OF MINE

This little light of mine
I am gonna let it shine, Let it shine (3)
Won't let satan blow it out
I am gonna let it shine, Let it Shine (3)
Hide it under a bushel Oh, no!
I am gonna let it shine, Let it shine (3)
Everywhere I go
I am gonna let it shine, Let it shine (3)

THE STEADFAST LOVE

The steadfast love of the Lord, never ceases
His mercy never comes to an end,
They are new every morning, new every morning
Great is thy faithfulness O Lord!
Great is thy faithfulness·

THANK YOU LORD

Thank you for the world so sweet
Thank you for the food we eat
Thank you for the birds that sing
Thank you God for everything

MARY'S SONG

And Mary Said:
"My soul glorifies the Lord
and my spirit rejoice in God my Saviour,
for he has been mindful of the humble state of his servant.
From now all generations will call me blessed,
for the Mighty One has done great things for me
Holy is his name
His mercy extends to those who fear him,
from generation to generation.
He has performed mighty deeds with his arm;
he has scattered those who are proud in their inmost thoughts.
He has brought down rulers their thrones
but has sent the rich away empty.
He has helped his servant Isreal,
remembering to be merciful
Abraham and his decendants for ever,
even as he said to our fathers."

GOD'S LOVE

God's love is so wonderful (3)
Oh! wonderful love.
It's so high, you can't get over it
It's so deep, you can't get under it
It's so wide, you can't get around it,
Oh ! wonderful love.

ALL THINGS TO BRIGHT

All things bright and beautiful
All creatures great and small
All things wise and wonderful
The good Lord made them all.
Each little flower that opens
Each little bird that sings
He made their glowing colours
He made their tiny wings
The purple headed mountains
The river running by
The sunset and the morning
That brightens up the sky

THE WORLD OF A GROWING CHILD AND THE ROLE OF AN ADULT :

A FRESH THOUGHT

The time has changed , but the needs of a growing child are the same what it was generation ago . The shift which we have seen over years is from ever - forgiving grandparents to hired Ayahs, from adoring aunts and uncles to hai-hell aunties and uncles who do not have time to see the giggles of the blooming buds. The learning process has become very complex and undue stress is on the child as he has to find himself in the world of challenges posing a threat to his existence.

Remember

- If a child lives with criticism , he learns to condemn
- If a child lives with praise , he learns to appreciate
- If a child lives with tolerance , he learns to be patient
- If a child lives with ridicule , he learns to be shy
- If a child lives with encouragement , he learns confidence
- If a child lives with shame, he learns to feel guilty
- If a child lives with approval , he learns to like himself
- If a child lives with fairness , he learns justice
- If a child lives with security , he learns to have faith
- If a child lives with acceptance and friendship, he learns to find love in the world

A better understanding of this variety of life experiences may make educational process a lively, continuous and limitless life long process .The fulfillment will be more than satisfying to teachers and parents.

He is the best General who makes the fewest mistakes.
